

September, 25, 2026

ANNOUNCEMENT

Immediate response by Enaon EDA to the incident on Lysikratous Street

Following the incident that occurred today in a building at 15 Lysikratous Street, Athens, Enaon EDA announces that its on-call response teams immediately went to the scene to investigate the incident and are carrying out the prescribed checks in cooperation with the competent authorities.

The causes of the incident are under investigation. The company will provide a further update.

The company is cooperating with the competent authorities and always acts with public safety, the protection of its personnel and the integrity of its infrastructure in mind, contributing to the uninterrupted and safe distribution of natural gas.

Consumers are reminded that, for any safety matter concerning the natural gas distribution network, they may contact Enaon EDA's Emergency Response Centre on 800 1187 878, which operates 24 hours a day.